 Buy a new house—R. E. Baldwin.
 Carriages 15 cents a dozen at Champion's.

Godey's Magazine for October at McKee's newsstand.
 Fall opening at B. Rogowski's Wednesday and Thursday, September 25 and 26.

Chairs, rockers and baby carriages at very low prices at Rattan Co., 552 State street.

Colonel Simeon J. Fox and Mrs. Fox of New Haven will celebrate the twenty-fifth anniversary of their marriage on Saturday, October 5.

Cards are out for the wedding of Hugh A. Bayne, Yale '92, of New Orleans, and Helen Cheney, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Knight D. Cheney, at South Manchester, October 8 at 3 o'clock.

Samuel N. Taylor of 125 Meadow street was arrested last night charged with obtaining goods by false pretense. It is alleged that he aided one George Adams to pass a bogus check upon Max Jacobs in return for a suit of clothes of the value of $25.

Yesterday's Derby Transcript says Horace DeBanks has severed his connection with C. F. Tolles & Co., the Main street clothiers, by whom he had been employed for several years, and today he assumed the agency for Ansonia and Derby for the Forsyth Dyeing and Laundry Co. of New Haven.

The state convention of the National Provident Union was held last night in Fraternity hall in the Insurance building. Among those present were the national president and secretary from New York city and the Connecticut officers. Speeches were made by Congressman N. D. Sperry, C. B. Foster and W. S. Wells.

Henry C. Melius of 30 Redfield street has just been afflicted by the loss of a young son five months old. The child had an operation performed on it for the purpose of straightening its feet, but malaria and complications setting in resulted in its death yesterday afternoon. The funeral will be held at the house this afternoon at 2 o'clock.

The twenty-second annual convention of the Women's Christian Temperance union of Connecticut will be held this year in the Pearl street church, Hartford, October 1, 2 and 3. It will open Tuesday, October 1, at 1:45 p. m. In the evening Mrs. Emille L. McLaughlin of Boston will give an address. On Wednesday evening John G. Woolley will be the speaker.

Anson P. Smith, a transient, was arrested last night by Officers Collet and Ledwith and locked up, charged with theft. Smith has for some time made a practice of going to the drug stores of the city and asking for two kinds of medicine. When one package had been put up and handed to him he would walk out of the store without either paying for it or waiting for his other package.

Gate-Tender Reed Dead.

Derby, Sept. 23.—William Reed, who for so many years had been in the employ of the New York, New Haven and Hartford railroad as gate tender at the Derby depot, died to-day, aged seventy-eight. He was highly respected by all.

Wants News of Her Husband.

Waterbury, Sept. 23.—Medical Examiner Axelle has a letter from Ellen Corcoran of San Francisco, Cal., asking about the death of Michael J. Corcoran, formerly proprietor of a hotel and saloon on Seville street in Waterbury. She claims to be his divorced wife and says Corcoran promised in case of his death to bequeath his property to their children. Corcoran died at the Waterbury hospital April 14, 1894, from a self-inflicted bullet wound. Jennie Corcoran, widow of the deceased, denies that Corcoran had a divorced wife.

JOY AMID HEAT.

Among the Public School Scholars.
 There was joy at the public schools yesterday afternoon among teachers and scholars when the glad announcement was made that owing to the intense heat the sessions would close at 3 o'clock. Superintendent Kendall issued an order to that effect, and it was received with joyfulness indeed. The school rooms were about like ovens, and the youthful minds were not making much headway with their studies. To-day the weather will probably be cooler.

Funeral of Mrs. Collins.

Solemn high mass over the remains of the late Mrs. Collins was celebrated at 9 o'clock at St. John's R. C. church yesterday morning. Rev. Father Coyle, celebrant.
 The music was of a high order, given by the full choir, besides several very artistic solos, notably the rendering of "Fear ye Not, O Israel," by the tenor, Edward Sheehan, which was sung with power, great pathos and sympathy throughout. Miss Sadie Thompson also sang most acceptably, "One Sweetly Solemn Thought," and Mr. Nugent, the young organist of the church, rendered "The Threnos Eccliel unto Death." The burial was in St. Bernard's cemetery.

The ordering department of this house is at your service if we do not have on hand the particular hat of English or American manufacture that you desire to purchase.

HERE WE ARE, BOYS,

WITH THE NEW

COMMON SENSE SUITS.

The demand for these famous Suits grows bigger and bigger every season. And no wonder. They are the greatest suits ever invented for live boys. One suit will do the work of two regular $5.00 suits. Every suit warranted. A new garment given in exchange for any one that may rip. If you want a suit that will do your boy more service than any suit that he ever wore, buy a "Common Sense." Several new patterns for fall and winter shown this week for the first time. Price $5.00. Extra pants, $1.65. Ages 5 to 16 years. Invented, made, and sold only by

HAVE YOU TWO DIAMONDS

At home that you are not using? If so, bring them to Silversmiths, the diamond experts at 790 Chapel street, and have them set in a two-stone ring while you wait, and see it done. They have the rings, you furnish the two diamonds. Call and talk it over. Several ladies have had it done by us lately; they are all the style just now.

Loads of People GO TO

Beers' Photo Parlors, 780 Chapel st.,

Because they are sure of getting the finest work made by the very latest appliances, and at prices so low they can afford to go again. We work by daylight and cloudy days, and every evening up to 9:30 by our Patent Electric Light. Come and see it work.

There should have been just as many pictures of Rugs Carpets and Upholstery as there are of furniture. They fully deserve it. But these things can't be pictured like furniture can. Suffice to say they're here and fully up to the standard set for furniture.

And there's the Basement with its thousand and one small wares waiting to be talked about. But somehow, people naturally gravitate that way. It's a business basement.

The public cannot forget (doesn't have a chance to) that we lead the Dry Goods trade of Connecticut. But perhaps they need to be reminded that we are the leading House Furnishers as well.

We make no more fuss about shipping such articles over the country than we make about shipping a package of Dry Goods.—Write and see.

Special: But new Yale Men may ask, "Do you sell Men's Furnishings?" Yes, indeed. We want you to find that department. We'll help you to find that department on the main floor and to get acquainted with it.
